

Huddle Contract Agreement for Parents

I. The Parties: This Agreement is made between: _____, with a mailing address of _____, City of _____, State of Illinois _____ (hereinafter known as the "Client")

AND
Jeter Learning Center, with a mailing address of 724 Bethalto Blvd., Bethalto, State of Illinois, 62010 _____ (hereinafter known as "Contractor")

WHEREAS the Client intends to pay the Contractor for Services provided, effective _____, 20____ under the following terms and conditions:

I. The Services: The Contractor agrees to perform the following: commit to providing space and 'WIFI' access in a quiet and secure environment in order for the student to attend virtual classes and instruction by their own instructors.

II. Requirements: Students will be required to bring their own district issued laptop or Chromebook and earphones as well as pens, pencils, paper and any other necessary supplies. Students must bring a schedule of their virtual classes and are required to be online for the scheduled sessions. Following the virtual classes, a student is to do their assigned homework. When a student has completed their virtual classes and their assigned homework, books and other quiet activities will be available for the remainder of the class day. All students will abide by the same code of conduct, including dress codes, as full-time students enrolled in the Jeter Learning Center.

Huddle students must fill out all required forms including emergency information, health examination, medication/ allergy releases, and hold harmless agreement.

Huddle students will bring a sack lunch and beverage.

III. Payment: In consideration for the Services to be performed by the Contractor, the Client agrees to pay the following: $37.50 per week payable on Friday for the following week. If paid monthly in advance, the fee is $150 with no additional charge for months that have a 5th week. No adjustment or refund will be made for absences and unused days may not be carried over to the next week/month. No consideration is given for holidays.

IV. Confidentiality: The Contractor acknowledges that in providing Services they may obtain personal and confidential information. The Contractor will not disclose or use, either during or after the term of this Agreement, any proprietary or confidential information of the Client without the Client's prior written permission.

V: Entire Agreement. This Agreement, along with any attachments or addendums, represents the entire agreement between the parties. Therefore, this Agreement supersedes any prior agreements, promises, conditions, or understandings between the Client and Contractor.
